Hi Shirin, how are you, I need your comments asap if you can, if you will have any additional ones. I wanted to give this to my admin today, with enough time for her to look it over and put it into a signature folder, so that can be ready for Wenona in the morning.

Sara, this is just an fyi for now, that I hope to get this to you really soon. The attachment still needs one last look over by Shirin. I want to have this ready for Wenona as early as possible tomorrow.

Thanks!

Hi Shirin, hope you are well and that cold did not take hold. I have final edits and concurrence gathered. So here is a final version of the letter. Wenona is out today and tomorrow, so I am debating whether to have the acting sign or wait until Friday when Wenona will be back. I guess what matters more than anything is if I think Wenona would rather that she saw it before we sent it. Do you have any opinions about whether we should wait until Friday?
